

AUTERO SMALL ROUND MIRROR

ARTERIOIRS

A unique design that fools the eye this piece is inspired by our popular more rectangular Autero Mirror (DD2004). The spike holding the mirror appears to have been hammered into the wall when in fact the piece is actually suspended from a cleat on the mirror's back so it is purely decorative. The iron frame has intensely etched texturing and is finished in burnt wax surrounding a flat mirror. Also available in a larger version (DD2614).
