

RENZO PENDANT

ARTERIORS

The saucer shape that forms each of the three tiers in this pendant is an early mid-century modern inspiration. The saucers are made of hand-blown glass which are each richly filled with seeded texture and suspended on a gold-leafed iron pipe. The top saucer holds all the light with three bulbs. Due to its tapered silhouette and size variance it's an ideal light for virtually any space. Additional pipe available (PIPE-195).
